ron FOR CHRISTMAS

DODGE ELECTRIC CO.

121 EAST SECOND STREET PHONE OSAGE 1899-7448

T IS CHRISTMAS EVE. The many pleasant little duties attendant upon Christmastide all accomplished, she sits dreaming, at her piano, while HIS longing eyes caress and plead. But still she dreamed as youth has dreamed on the night before Christmas for nearly two thousand years. What cherished desire is the morrow to fulfill?

Childhood's pleasures outgrown, she contemplates the maturer interest of the "grown-ups" rather timidly. Yet one abiding interest she has that was long fostered as she listened to the lullabies her mother sang to her in babyhood - that has grown and deepened as she learned the principles of harmony and rhythm, a blessing that will enrich and beautify her whole life her MUSIC.

And her music will be an ever-present blessing if the "Grand" or "Upright" is chosen for her drawing room or parlor from the stocks of Hallett and Davis, Ivers and Pond, the Conway and the Lexington now on display in our store.

Some of these makes of pianos have been chosen by the leading musical concert and social clubs of Tulsa as the instrument possessing the best qualities for their needs.
